There is no right or wrong way to write a novel, but Hinze shows you one way--her way--which has helped her write and publish award-winning, bestselling novels, time after time. In this book, she opens her personal toolbox of methods and guides that you can alter to fit your own process to get your novel started, written, tested, and submitted. As Hinze says, Your writing is time from your life and because it is, it should be the time of your life!.
