(Strategy) In order to be self-empowered, you must learn these key life skills within a self-empowerment model developed by author Thomas Ventimiglia. It consists of the eight elements of the self that make up the titles of the eight chapters in the book. In addition, you will find 168 life skill exercises that can help you achieve these fifty-six strategies. These exercises have been proven to be successful with college students from ages 18 to 90, as measured by Ventimiglia in his twenty-four years of teaching. You'll learn state-of-the-art skills in stress management; taking responsibility; raising self-esteem; emotional development; managing anxiety, depression, and grief; reframing negative thoughts and beliefs; energy psychology methods; learning style identification; meditations; clarifying cultural, family, religious, and societal value systems; life balance; goal achievement; personality style; attracting the right person; setting boundaries of communication; and much more.
