Not illustrated. 2003-01 Excerpt: . . . trust lands are assigned a four-digit census code and a five-digit Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) code that is the same as that for the reservation with which they are associated. As with reservations, FIPS codes for offreservation trust lands are unique within state, so they will differ if they extend into more than one state. The FIPS codes for such off-reservation trust lands are the same as those for the associated reservation. In the TIGERLine products, a letter code-T for tribal and I for individual identifies off-reservation trust lands. In decennial census data tabulations, a trust land flag uniquely identifies off-reservation trust lands. Printed reports show separate tabulations for all off-reservation trust land areas, but do not provide separate tabulations for the tribal versus individual trust lands. Trust lands associated with tribes that do not have a reservation are presented and coded by tribal name, interspersed alphabetically among the reservation names. American Indian Tribal Subdivision American Indian tribal subdivisions are administrative subdivisions of federally recognized American Indian reservations, off-rservt ion trust lands, or Oklahoma tribal statistical areas (OTSAs), known as areas, chapters, communities, or districts. These entities are internal units of selfgovernment or administration that serve social, cultural, andor economic purposes for the American Indians on the reservations, off-reservation trust lands, or OTSAs. The U. S. Census Bureau obtains the boundary and name information for tribal subdivisions from tribal governments. The U. S. Census Bureau first provided data for American Indian tribal subdivisions in the 1980...
