Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .numbered as received and placed in a folio specially prepared for our purpose. This folio not only serves as a holder for the papers, but also furnishes an opportunity to make note of corrections needed, and thns from the time the papers reach the office until the certificates are all completed and mailed they are kept together. A small card index standing on mailing desk is always a guide to the whereabouts of the papers and is divided into three sections, current, unfinished, and completed, the cards being moved to the corresponding sections at the proper time. Another feature of the work of the office during the year which has been developed in a larger manner than previously has been the preparation and circulation among the Agricultural Press of articles relating to the work of our breed. These have included several reports and comments on the work of the Model Dairy, recently completed Milk and Butter Records, Gnernseys as Milk Producers, Recent Sales, Transfers, etc. I wish to say with but few exceptions this matter has been gladly welcomed by the papers and to them we are indebted for their courtesy in publishing same. The question of a special Gnernsey publication which was presented a year ago has not met with the support necessary to insure its success. Some papers of good, established circulation have offered to devote a certain amount of space to Gnernsey matter if furnished to them exclusively, but it has been...
