In 2008, Nevada's governor formed the Nevada Spending and Government Efficiency (SAGE) Commission to make recommendations on providing quality services to its citizens for the least money. He appointed business leaders to form the most knowledgeable commission in Nevada's history. Rather than a voluminous report at the end, he asked the Commission to forward recommendations to him every 90 days, so that changes could be implemented expeditiously. He told commissioners not to be concerned with fiscal crises, or the political implications of its recommendations. Over 18 months, the SAGE Commission made 44 recommendations that, if implemented, will save or enhance state revenues by approximately two billion dollars over five years, while resulting in hundreds of new efficiencies. The SAGE Commission is proud of its work, which has not cost the state a single dollar because it was funded by a private, non-profit corporation. What disappointed these volunteer commissioners was the reluctance to implement the vast majority of its recommendations. Although the SAGE Commission was not designed to solve the short term revenue crises facing the state,...
