Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Correspondence in Relation to the Capture of the British Brigs: Detroit and Caledonia, on the Night of October 8, 1812 Sir - My attention was called to the enclosed article, which had been cut out of the Boston Courier and sent to a friend of mine in this place, with a request that he would obtain from me a statement of the services performed by the artillery under my command in the capture of the brigs Detroit and Caledonia, and of the circumstances under which the latter was saved from being burnt to prevent recapture. I understood the information was wanted for publication, to correct what was believed to be erroneous in the article that appeared in the Courier, and to claim for the army whatever credit it was entitled to for that affair. On reflection, I thought that if such publication was made, it should be done by me, and under my name; and on further consideration, I concluded to make it; but before my statement was prepared, I noticed several paragraphs in the public prints relating to you, altogether of an unfriendly character; and I thought that a publication, at that time, contradicting the article in the Courier, which was intended to do you honor, would have the appearance of taking an unfair advantage of the feeling produced by these paragraphs. This, together with the important fact that you were then absent from the country, determined me to postpone it. Your return to the United States moves the objection sooner than I anticipated. It occurs to me, however, that it will be most agreeable to you to make the corrections yourself, and to...
