The safest conclusion seems to me that the whole subject is beyond the scope of mans intellect; but man can do his duty. Again in 1879 he was applied to by a German student, in a similar manner. The letter was answered by a member of my fathers family, who wrote: --Mr. Darwin begs me to say that he receives so many letters, that he cannot answer them all. He considers that the theory of Evolution is quite compatible with the belief in a God; but that you must remember that different persons have different definitions of what they mean by God. This, however, did not satisfy the German youth, who again wrote to my father, and received from him the following reply: --I am much engaged, an old man, and out of health, and I cannot spare time to answer your questions...
